

Contents

Foreword	ix
Wolfgang Reinicke

1 The Role of Rules and Institutions in Global Energy: An Introduction	1
Andreas Goldthau and Jan Martin Witte

PART ONE

Global Energy and Trade and Investment

2 Energy Diplomacy in Trade and Investment of Oil and Gas	25
Andreas Goldthau
3 Managing the Patchwork of Agreements in Trade and Investment	49
Yulia Selivanova
4 Development of the Emerging Biofuels Market	73
Simonetta Zarrilli

- 5 *Trade and Investment in Global Energy:
A Policy Perspective* 99
Ralf Dickel

PART TWO

Global Energy and Financial Markets

- 6 State-Backed Financing in Oil and Gas Projects 107
Amy Myers Jaffe and Ronald Soligo
- 7 *How Do Emerging Carbon Markets Influence
Energy Sector Investments?* 133
William Blyth
- 8 *Financing the Future: Investments in Alternative
Sources of Energy* 161
Hillard Huntington and Christine Jojarth
- 9 *A New Green Deal and the Future of Global Energy:
A Policy Perspective* 183
Joseph A. Stanislaw

PART THREE

Short-Term Supply Management and Long-Term Energy Cooperation

- 10 *Consumer Country Energy Cooperation:
The International Energy Agency and the Global Energy Order* 195
Wilfrid L. Kohl
- 11 The Evolving Role of LNG in the Gas Market 221
Dick de Jong, Coby van der Linde, and Tom Smeenk
- 12 The International Energy Forum and the Mitigation of Oil Market Risks 247
Enno Harks

13	The Future of Producer-Consumer Cooperation: A Policy Perspective	269
	Albert Bressand
PART FOUR
14	Emerging Issues and Outlook
14	The Good/Bad Nexus in Global Energy Governance	287
	Thorsten Benner and Ricardo Soares de Oliveira
	with Frederic Kalinke
15	Building Global Rules for Sovereign Wealth Funds	315
	Jamie Manzer and Jan Martin Witte
16	Global Energy Governance: The Way Forward	341
	Andreas Goldthau, Wade Hoxtell, and Jan Martin Witte
	Contributors	357
	Index	359