

November 2021

Amos Harel

Professional Trajectory

Present:

Nonresident Senior Fellow in the Foreign Policy Program, Brookings Institution (since October 2022)

Defense Analyst, Ha'aretz Newspaper, Israel (since July 2007). Daily analysis of Israel's security and strategic situation, as well as a weekly column. Published both in Hebrew and English, on print and online (Haaretz.co.il, Haaretz.com). Also frequently interviewed on both Israeli and international TV and Radio stations.

Adjunct Professor, Reichman University, Herzliya, Israel (since November 2016). Each year, I teach a one-semester course for third year B.A honor students, titled "The Art of Strategic Analysis".

Past:

Military Correspondent, Ha'aretz Newspaper (1997-2007). Covered the Israeli military, the second Intifada (2000-2006), the Second Lebanon War (2006) and Israeli withdrawals from both Southern Lebanon (2000) and the Gaza Strip (2005).

Editor, Head of Evening News Desk, Ha'aretz Newspaper (1992-1997). Headed the Ha'aretz evening news editorial team, responsible for the newspaper's daily print edition (pre- Internet times). Events included the Oslo Accords and the Rabin assassination.

Military Correspondent and Editor, IDF (Israeli army) Radio (1986-1992). Covered the Israeli military for the army's radio station during my mandatory service. Later on became anchorman and editor for various radio news shows, for Israel's most popular radio station, at the time.

Education

Tel Aviv University, B.A in law studies, 1995.

Publications

Amos Harel's articles on Haaretz.com (<https://www.haaretz.com/ty-WRITER/0000017f-da36-d938-a17f-fe3e0cfe0000>)

"A War with No Name" (in Hebrew), three-part Israeli documentary series for Israel's Channel 1 TV, advisor.

Books

The Seventh War: How we won and why we lost the war with the Palestinians (in Hebrew, Yediot Books, 2004, revised edition: 2005, with Avi Isacharoff).

34 Days: Israel, Hezbollah and the War in Lebanon (in Hebrew, Yediot Books, 2008. Translated to English by Palgrave Macmillan, 2008, with Avi Isacharoff).

The New Face of the IDF (in Hebrew, Kineret-Zmora Books, 2013).

Awards

Chechic Award, 2005, by the Institute of Strategic Studies in Tel-Aviv University for the book "The Seventh War", for the most outstanding strategic study published during the previous year.

Chechic Award, 2009, by the Institute of Strategic Studies in Tel-Aviv University for the book "34 Days", for the most outstanding strategic study published during the previous year.

Sokolov Award, 2015, by the Tel Aviv Municipality, for excellence in Journalism.

Outside Affiliations

Ha'aretz Daily Newspaper, Israel, Defense Analyst and Military Correspondent.

Reichman University, Herzliya, Israel, Adjunct Professor.

The Center for Media and Democracy in Israel, Shomrim, Member of the Advisory Committee.