

Jonathan Czin

PROFESSIONAL HISTORY

Senior China Analyst, CIA

Director for China, National Security Council (NSC) (2021 – 2023)

Advisor, Asian Security Affairs, Office of the Secretary of Defense (2016)

ACADEMIC PUBLICATIONS

- “Japanese Foreign Policy in the Middle East: Balancing Security and Economy,” Asian Security (Spring 2008)
- “Dragon-slayer or Panda-hugger? Chinese Perspectives on ‘Responsible Stakeholder’ Diplomacy,” Yale Journal of International Affairs (Spring/Summer 2007)
- “Surveying Asia: An Interview with former NSC Senior Director for Asia Michael Green,” Yale Journal of International Affairs (Spring/Summer 2007)

AWARDS

- Member, CIA’s Senior Analytic Service.
- Received a dozen CIA Exceptional Performance Awards.
- Received a team performance award from the Under Secretary of Defense for Policy (2016).

EDUCATION

Yale University, MA, International Relations (2007)

- Concentration: East Asian Security Dynamics and Political Economy
- Managing Editor, Yale Journal of International Affairs (2006-2007)
- Merit scholarship (2006-07)

Haverford College, BA, Magna Cum Laude with High Honors in Political Science (2005)

- Award for best performance in Political Science
- Visiting Student, Pembroke College, Oxford University (2003-04)